

Dublin Chapter ICWCI Committee 2025

Chairman Liam Murphy MICWCI

Liam has a background in carpentry holds a Higher Certificate in Site Management from Dublin Institute of Technology and a Higher Certificate in Health and Safety from University College Dublin. He is currently employed as District Inspector with the Office of Public Works and was previously estate manager with Castletown House and Farmleigh Estates. Liam has been involved with the Dublin Chapter since its beginning and has served in several roles on the committee down through the years.

Vice Chairman David Hill MICWCI. MCIOB

Coming from a carpentry background, David has over thirty years' experience in construction and is CEO of Virgo Construction. David is a Chartered Construction Manager and has qualifications in sustainable construction. David works nationwide managing projects in the very demanding healthcare sector. He has been a member at committee level in the Dublin Chapter for over five years in all roles.

Secretary Liam Driscoll MICWCI. MCIOB.

Currently employed by Respond Housing as a Clerk of Works, having previously worked with Dublin City Council and Dunlaoghaire Councils in this role. Starting his working life as a bricklayer, Liam is a Chartered Construction Manager and is a past student of Dublin Institute of Technology and Trinity College Dublin. He has been part of the Dublin Chapter committee for many years filling the role of Assistant Secretary, Secretary and Chairman in rotation

Assistant Secretary Pierce Dowling

Pierce is employed as a Clerk of Works with the Health Service Executive, from a carpentry background, he previously worked as a site foreman and supervisor. Pierce is a past student of Construction Site Management at Technology University Dublin.

Student Officer Sean Smyth FICWCI.

From a carpentry and joinery trade, Sean previously worked as a Clerk of Works with a local authority. He is currently a lecturer in the School of Surveying and Construction Innovation at Technology University Dublin. He has been part of the Dublin Chapter committee for ten years and has served as Chairman and Vice Chairman on two occasions and holds the honour of being a Fellow of ICWCI.

CPD Officer Kevin Bartley MICWCI

Kevin has a background in carpentry and began his career in construction in 2001. Having previously been self-employed he commenced work with South Dublin County Council as a carpenter and progressed to position of foreman. He holds a Bachelor of Technology (BTech) in Construction Management at Technological University Dublin, graduating with Distinction in 2019. He later joined the Office of Public Works as District Inspector and is currently working as Clerk of Works/Building Inspector for Dublin City Council. Kevin has been involved with the Dublin Chapter from his time in TU Dublin as a student member and has progressed to becoming a full member.